Workshop on Developing Income for Non-Profits

North Jersey--The Non Profit Training and Resource Center of the Volunteer Center of Bergen County will present a workshop, Meet the Funders, on Wednesday, March 11, from 9:30 am to 12:00 pm at the Volunteer Center's offices at 64 Passaic Street in Hackensack. The cost is $35, which includes continental breakfast and all course materials.

Panelists will share insights into their expectations for fundable projects. Representatives from different types of funding sources will explain how to access funding resources, what attracts them to projects, and how an agency's applications can be more competitive.

"How an organization's work impacts the community, its sustainability and accountability are important concerns of grantors," says Janet Sharma, Executive Director of the Volunteer Center. "They want to make sure that the organizations receiving the funds are good stewards of the money. The information contained in this course can help an agency to achieve its goals in the coming months and years."

This workshop is part of a series designed specifically for staff and volunteers in non-profit agencies. It is highly interactive and hands-on, providing both an enjoyable and meaningful learning experience.

Pre-registration and pre-payment of the $35 fee is required; the deadline for registration is March 6th. For more information or to register, e-mail training@bergenvolunteers.org, or call (201) 489-9454, ext.114.

The mission of the Volunteer Center is to strengthen the community by connecting people with opportunities to serve, operating model volunteer programs, building capacity for effective volunteering, and participating in strategic partnerships that meet community needs.
